

Name	Dr. Todd Davey
Nationality	Australian (German / French permanent residency)
In a nutshell	Prof. Dr. Todd Davey is a passionate researcher, practitioner, educator and a recognised international expert in the areas of entrepreneurship, innovation and university-business cooperation. An Erasmus Teaching Scholarship recipient, he is an Associate Professor of Entrepreneurship at the Institut Mines-Télécom Business School in Paris, a visiting fellow at Technical University of Vienna (AUT) and the University of Adelaide (AUST), and previously a visiting fellow at Imperial College (UK), in the topics of entrepreneurship and innovation. Formerly a Senior Manager with Deloitte Australia's Technology Commercialisation Group and responsible part of the executive team for one of Australia's fastest growing technology start-ups in the 2000s, Todd has 'switched sides' to work within academia, completing his PhD at the VU Amsterdam on the topic entrepreneurship at universities. Todd is the creator of the Future Universities Thoughtbook series and instigator of one of the largest surveys completed worldwide assessing the entrepreneurial motivations of students. As a consultant, Todd has worked with the European Commission (EC), UNESCO, the Australian Government, the Vietnamese Government, European Institute for Innovation and Technology and numerous other organisations over a 20 period. For the EC, he has led the two largest international studies yet completed into cooperation between universities and businesses and was a member of the expert group of the development of HEInnovate, the EC's tool for innovative universities as well as commercialising TechAdvance™, a tool for evaluating technologies. Todd's academic, commercial, international and leadership experience combine to create a very unique set of capabilities to develop the future-oriented university and cultivate entrepreneurial mind-sets and processes at universities.
Leadership	Todd is the Founder and Director of a research team of eight researchers working on the topics of university-business cooperation, entrepreneurship at universities, the future of universities and regional innovation systems. He is a co-founder of the Innovative Futures Institute and has been the Director of Strategy at the University-Industry Innovation Network (UIIN) since the network was founded, a worldwide network focused on the topic of university-industry interaction. He is a member of the council for the Accreditation Council for Entrepreneurial and Engaged Universities (ACEEU) dedicated to recognizing and promoting entrepreneurial and engaged universities and was a member of the Expert Group of the development of HEInnovate, the European Commission's tool for entrepreneurial and innovative universities. Todd was a Director at the Science-to-Business Marketing Research Centre, Germany, in which he had a leading strategic and development role to take it from 4 to 18 employees between 2007 to 2019.
Research &amp; Dissemination	Todd is the author of the book 'Entrepreneurship at Universities' and has co-authored over 50 publications, including 15 journal articles in the topics of entrepreneurship, innovation and university-business cooperation. As an editor, Todd is Initiator and Chief-Editor of the Future Universities Thoughtbook Series and has been Guest Editor for the Entrepreneurship Education special issue in the Journal of Industry & Higher Education as well as reviewer for four journals. Additionally, he has presented over 70 times at international conferences (25+ as keynote) and forums hosted over 35 professional workshops on the topics of entrepreneurial universities, university-business cooperation, innovation and technology evaluation. He is presently the supervisor of two PhD candidates.
Topics	University-business cooperation, motivation for entrepreneurship, entrepreneurial thinking and acting, the entrepreneurial ecosystem, entrepreneurial universities, future of universities, regional innovation systems, technology evaluation.
Education	Presently the Director of the Strategy and Entrepreneurship in the Digital ERA (SEED) master as part of a Grand Ecole programme, he was previously the Director of the Sports Business and Communication Masters at the Munich Business School. As an innovative educator and academic with excellent teaching ratings, Todd teaches at the Institut Mines-Télécom Business School, Munich Business School (DE), Technical University of Vienna (AUT) and the University of Adelaide (AUST). He has previously worked at the Munich Business School and Münster University of Applied Sciences in Germany, been visiting researcher and lecturer at Imperial College in the UK, VU Amsterdam in the Netherlands and Nelson Mandela University in South Africa and an Erasmus Scholarship teaching exchange recipient to teach at ESIC Business School (ES) and INSEEC Business School (FR) and has taught at many other universities. He has also led the European eChallenge programme, one of the longest running university entrepreneurship contests, for the University of Adelaide and ran the International program within the Challenge Project , one of France's largest start-up idea competitions.
Program / Curriculum development	In 13 years of teaching experience, he has created ten programmes at bachelor's, eight at master's level and three at executive education level and has supervised 50+ theses, 20+ internships and 27 student projects with business. Experience in curriculum development included creating eChallenge Grand Est, Strategy and Entrepreneurship in the Digital ERA (SEED) Major, MBS LaunchIT, Business Idea Idol, eFactor entrepreneurship course, the Discovery Innovation Project, The Urban Challenge, Onboard and Customer Forensics learning journey programmes.
