

Carlos Ayala
(Venezuela)

Résumé

1. International Commission of Jurist, Vice President (2018-) and Member (2012-); International Human Rights Institute (International Bar Association, London), Member of the Board (2009-2019).
2. Inter-American Commission on Human Rights (I-ACHR), Member and Chairman (1996-1999); and Rapporteur for Indigenous People's Rights of the I-ACHR (1996-1999).
3. Andean Commission of Jurists, President (2003-2009) and Member (1992-2009). National Academy of Social and Political Sciences of Venezuela, Member Number 28 (2011-).
4. Iberoamerican Institute of Constitutional Law, Member of the Board (1998-) Chairman of the Venezuela Chapter (1998-), and Iberoamerican Institute of Procedural Constitutional Law, Member of the Board (1998-).
5. Venezuelan Association of Constitutional Law, President (1996-1998) and President Honoris Causa (1998-); Member of the Constitutional Law Associations of Argentina, Colombia, Chile and Perú; and Member of the Institute of Research of the State at Universidad de Belgrano, Argentina (1999-).
6. Member of the International Commission for the process of selection and appointment of the Supreme Court of Justice of Ecuador on behalf of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights (2005); and UN Consultant for the appointment of the Supreme Court of Justice in Guatemala (2009).
7. Professor of Constitutional and Administrative Law at UCAB and Universidad Central de Venezuela (UCV), Caracas (1983-). Head of the Section of Constitutional Law at UCAB (1992-2003) and Head of the Department of Public Law (2003-).
8. Professor of "International Human Rights Law", University of Oxford, New College of Law, UK (2011-); Georgetown University, USA (1999); American University, Washington of College of Law, USA (1999; 2004-) and Visiting Professor since 2020.
9. Attorney-at-Law Cum Laude of Universidad Católica "Andrés Bello" (UCAB), Caracas. (1979); Master's in Government and Public Law. Georgetown University (1981) and Doctorate Degree (PHD) in UCAB (2022).
10. Member of the Caracas Bar Association (1979-) and since 1981 a practicing attorney in the field of Public Law, Arbitration, and International Human Rights Law. Since 2003, partner in the Caracas law firm: Ayala, Dillon, Fernández & Chavero (Consultores Jurídicos).
11. Author of several publications in Constitutional Law, Administrative Law and Human Rights Law (22 books and 97 articles).